

'The Magnificent Seven' James Braid Highland Golf Trail

The James Braid Highland Golf Trail has been initiated to enhance the experience of golfers wishing to visit a wonderfully picturesque part of Scotland whilst benefitting from the enjoyment and challenge of playing over our Braid designed golf courses.

20% off Full Green Fees when quoting JBHGT if you book at any of these seven courses via telephone. More information may be found online via the web addresses shown below.

Boat of Garten Golf Club

18 completely individual holes, cleverly and sensitively shaped fairways lined by birch trees, heather and broom producing one of Scotland's finest tests of golf. Ranked 28th course in Scotland by NCG 2019.

Inverness Golf Club

Located in the heart of the Highland Capital, Inverness Golf Club has a splendid parkland course with tree lined fairways and generous well manicured greens. An enjoyable and challenging test for any golfer.

Muir of Ord Golf Club

An award winning Golf Club, set in an area of outstanding scenery with the hills of the Great Glen to the South and Ben Wyvis to the North. The course features tight fairways and one of the finest par 3's in Scotland.

Fortrose & Rosemarkie Golf Club

A true Scottish links golf course and national championship venue. Voted Scotland's Best Golfing Experience (VIM) at the Scottish Golf Tourism Awards 2017 & 18, it is ranked in top 50 courses in Scotland (GW)

Golspie Golf Club

Situated an hour's drive North from Inverness, the small Highland village of Golspie hosts one of the hidden gems of Highland golf. The Par 70 course offers an excellent golfing experience whether you are an advanced golfer or beginner.

Brora Golf Club

Recognised as one of James Braid's finest pieces of work, the green staff work tirelessly to preserve its original beauty. This course reflects the perfect balance between challenge and fun in a truly breathtaking setting.

Reay Golf Club

A traditional links course on the scenic north coast of Scotland. It nestles in Sandside Bay with the North Atlantic ocean visible from every hole. Reay is far North, but certainly worth the distance.
